Fine Worsteds SUITS for MEN Special, $18.50

ONE of the hardest things to find elsewhere in New York to-day is a good showing of worth-while Worsteds Suits, tailored right, at anywhere near the remarkable Macy price of $18.50.

No wonder, then, that we cheerfully call your attention to the unusually fine assortment that we have—in all the most wanted colors and patterns. Just look at these blue pencil-stripe effects, these black with the white hairline stripes, these two-tone effects in the neat gray stripe.

You'll have to pay $25.00 almost anywhere else in the city for Suits like these, and even then you will not be so sure of the quality as we are with ours at $18.50.

The latest Spring models in Men's Suits have been followed for cut and style, and the tailoring is both clever and distinctive. The lining is twilled mohair or alpaca.

If you don't like worsted, or if $18.50 does not strike you as being just the price to pay for a Suit, let us suggest that you look over Macy's

Blue Serge Suits, $14.75 to $29.75.

Fancy Suits, $14.75 to $32.50.

Spring Top-coats, just in keeping with the Suits—$14.75 to $44.50.

The MEN'S Shop

THE MEN'S STORE

Men's Clothes

Some Suggestions.

EVERY man who is going to buy new clothes tomorrow should see the largest stock and the newest fashions, and get a clear idea of the real purchasing power of his money.

Every man who wants a blue or gray serge suit should see the suits of England's finest serge at $32.50. Three shades of gray and a deepdark blue. That sum will not buy their cloth or tailoring equal anywhere else.

Every young man should see the new suits—only came in yesterday—at $25: high arm-hole, high-peaked soft-roll lapels, natural shoulders, patch pockets, cuffs on the shortened sleeves; black and white or brown and white checks, mixtures, plain grays. Beauties.

Every man who wants greater value in a suit than even we can give him every day should see the suits at $22.50—made to sell at $27.50, $30 and $35; and the suits at $27.50, made by the best manufacturing tailor in America to sell for much more.

Covert topcoats are $25, $30, $38 and $42.

Serge-lined topcoats, $17.50, $20: silk-lined, $25 and $30.

Lincoln-Bennett tweed hats in the Hatterie, $3.50.

Soft hats and derbies, London and American, $3.50, $5.

Silk half-hose from Germany and France, $1.50, $2, $2.50 and $3.

Silk half-hose, mercerized soles, fashioned, 50c pair.

NEW HOMES FOR PARK ANIMALS.

Alligators Moved to Cement Pond—More Space for Flowers.

The Central Park menagerie has undergone such improvements that an old time visitor would scarcely recognize it. The small animal houses on the hill have been removed and the space is given to lawns and flower beds.

The coyotes, foxes, raccoons and small bears are in a small building at the rear of the elephant house.

A pool for alligators has been constructed near the arsenal. It is in the shape of an oyster shell and is built of white cement. A spray fountain is in the center. The alligators were transferred to their new summer home yesterday.

The menagerie improvements were brought about by Louis F. La Roche, an examiner in Park Commissioner Stover's office.

DEATHS STILL DECREASING.

State Last Week Only 14.18 Per Thousand of Population.

The death rate of New York city continues to decrease, according to the weekly bulletin of the Health Department. There were 1,000 deaths, with a death rate of 14.18 per 1,000 of the population, reported during the week ended April 12, as against 1,000 deaths, with a death rate of 16.14 during the corresponding week of 1912.

Full Kills David R. Watt.
Philadelphia, April 18.—David R. Watt, 51 years, manager of the Sterling Club, died at his home here last night, after a long illness. He was a native of Scotland and had been in the city for many years. He is survived by his widow.
